

What You Need to Know For Our Worship Today

We're going to sing, pray, read, preach, and share this morning. Don't worry about where you are at any given point or what comes next in the service. Since God is in charge, we trust that we will be guided to where we need to be.

Feel free to express your praise and worship in whatever way is comfortable to you.

Lord of the Pawn, Flea Market, and Garage Sale

The promises of God have offered us comfort and hope for generations. But there are promises and then there are promises. This morning we're going to look at the fifth chapter of Paul's letter to the church at Rome to discover a couple of important promises that lie at the very heart of the gospel.

You are invited to write the first name or initials of someone you are having a hard time 'holding onto' on one of the crosses in the sanctuary. During the singing of the last hymn you will be invited to go forward and put it in the cross.

If you are just checking us out this morning, then know, as our guest, that you are not obligated to put anything in the offering plate as it comes around.

Children of all ages are always welcome to remain in the service, and activity bags are available at the back of the Great Room. We also have a professionally staffed nursery. Ages 3 yrs.—1st grade are welcome to leave the Great Room during the musical interlude to join Children's Worship. Children's Worship will not be offered during the 10 a.m. service. We encourage all children to attend Sunday School.

*We pray that you have been blessed by being here.
May Jesus Christ find a way to make you
His blessing to someone else in the coming week.*

Sunday School Classes

There are Sunday School classes for all ages at 10:00 a.m. Age appropriate lessons and crafts are planned for the pre-school and elementary age children as well as thought provoking topics and discussions for youth and adults. Adult classes include:

Christian Issues... This class meets in Adult 2 in the Education wing of the church at 10:00 a.m. They focus on current issues and how they affect our Christian lives. Today, this class will be hosting our senior senator, Richard Lugar, who will be discussing world hunger. All adult classes are joining this class for today.

Know and Grow... In Know and Grow over the next few weeks they will be discussing the Beatitudes. This morning, however, this class will be hearing from Senator Richard Lugar who is speaking on world hunger in the Christian Issues class.

Christian Families Class... This Sunday school class is now studying "Generation to Generation: Practical and Creative Ideas for Raising Kids to Know and Love God." Today, this class will be meeting with Senator Lugar.

UnderGrad Sunday Study Class... Tonight at 6:00 p.m., this discussion-based group will meet in the Intersection. It is for anyone in the typical college-aged years (18-22 or so).

Fresh Faith... Are you looking for a fresh take on Jesus and what it means to live the kind of life he teaches us to live? Please join us! This class meets in the music room at 10 a.m. We welcome people of all ages! Each week the group will discuss a chapter from the book, Velvet Elvis, Repainting the Christian Faith by Rob Bell. If you enjoy thought provoking discussions and great fellowship, this class should be an enriching experience.
